We long for intimacy, for the kind of love that believes and bears all things. We long for intimacy, for the kind of love that believes and bears all things. It has been a very valuable read and I'm excited to implement all I have learned.

Finding the Hero in Your Husband (August 10, 2001 edition)

The worst part is that he doesn't even notice anything is wrong! Robertson McQuilkin is a hero.

Finding the Hero in Your Husband (August 10, 2001 edition)

I'm so tired of trying to make this marriage work! Their eyes see nothing but the strength and promise of their love. God's plan is that marriage is love in its infancy, not its maturity. I am in charge of the wives ministry at my church.
