Black mutiny (1968 edition)

He could not simply assert that the Africans were human beings and grant freedom on the basis of natural rights. Good: A book that has been read but is in good condition.

Slave Mutiny: the Revolt on the Schooner Amistad

Thompson was a strong-willed judge who opposed slavery, but he even more ardently supported the laws of the land. Despite the international ban on the importation of enslaved Africans, Cuba continued to transport captive Africans to its sugar plantations until the 1860s, and Brazil to its coffee plantations until the 1850s.

Amistad (film)

Maroon communities were settlements of runaway slaves.
