Association between interoception and empathy: Evidence from heartbeat

Future investigations should target this issue, ideally contemplating additional interoceptive sources and indicators of reinnervation. In coherence, energy is accumulated, not wasted, leaving you more energy to manifest intention and harmonious outcomes.

What is the Stress Response

The adrenal medulla is part of the autonomic nervous system ANS. This rush has literally been known to give people seemingly superhuman powers, including extreme strength and speed.

Guide To The Brain

This amygdala is more active than the right in women, and in persons of both genders who have anxiety disorders.
