The headstone was inscribed as follows: In Memory of SAMUEL ROSEWELL Minister of the Gospel, Whose zeal and labour of God, Whose charity and love of men, Whose courage and patience under long and acute pains, And whose joyful hope and triumph in death, Gave the world a glorious example of Christianity. Let me entreat and beseech you therefore, Brethren, to Pray to God for His Blessing upon all His Servants in the Ministry; and in an especial manner to strive together with me in your Prayers to God for me, That I may be supported, notwithstanding all my Infirmitiess: And that since it hath pleased God to take my Pastor and my Father from my head; He would graci ously give unto me His Holy Spirit in proper tion to the Work that now lies upon me, Pray for me that I may not be alone, but may enjoy more of the Presence of CHRIST with me;

That GOD with whom is the Residue of the Spirit, would give me those Divine Influences and Assistances which are needful.
