A room of our own & new clothes: Homeless children's new year wish

Following World War II, agricultural production was subject to further modernization, which resulted in fewer farmers on fewer farms of greater size. Indeed, many Germans adhere to standards of bürgerlichkeit, or civic morality, which lend a certain neatness and formality to behavior in everyday life.

NY Daily News

Many of them dread the celebratory nights as they say that drunk people on road, loud music and crowds make it difficult for them to sleep.

Race and Racial Identity Are Social Constructs

Meanwhile many rural houses stand empty. And their remains have since disappeared.

Ex

With the cutback or elimination of such policies following the entry of the new federal states into the Federal Republic of Germany, there was both a greater hesitancy to have children and a greater tendency to view having children separately from marital status. Religious practitioners in Germany include especially the Protestant or Catholic pfarrer minister or priest. Or we can decide for ourselves.

Cinema Libre Studio

These differences between former East Germany and former West Germany may be attributed, in part, to the economic difficulties in the new federal states.

Culture of Germany

Orson Welles replayed the report for his cast as an example of the tone he wanted for War of the Worlds. From this point forward, the term deutsch was employed to mark a difference in speech, which corresponded to political, geographic, and social distinctions as well.

NY Daily News

The Luther Bible, written in the vernacular German of Upper Saxony, spread throughout the German-speaking world and helped to create a national reading public. By contrast, Mrs Kramp-Karrenbauer's time in charge was blighted by a series of mistakes and missteps, and by the erosion of confidence in her leadership ability.
