

William Langland

- - Life of William Langland (c.1330)

Description: -

-
Langland, William, ca. 1330-ca. 1400 -- Criticism and interpretation. William Langland

-
Medieval and renaissance authors ; v. 6 William Langland

Notes: 6

This edition was published in -

Filesize: 25.43 MB

Tags: #William #Langland #Biography

Life of William Langland (c.1330)

The poem is, in form, an elaborate dream vision.

William Langland (Langland, William, 1330?)

The character Will in the poem, who has an allegorical significance as the human will, may reflect a certain amount of autobiographical material.

William Langland (c.1332?)

A good introduction to the poem appears in Raymond W.

William Langland

George Russel and George Kane. This makes it difficult to align Langland with any specific order.

William Langland (Langland, William, 1330?)

The poem is divided into 12 passus, or steps, the first 8 of which contain a prologue and an allegorical vision.

William Langland

Piers Plowman: the three versions, gen. The narrator in Piers Plowman receives his first vision while sleeping in the between and , which suggests some connection to the area.

Life of William Langland (c.1330)

She is about to wed Falsehood.

Related Books

- Eva, wo bist du? - Wirkungsmacht des Weiblichen im Werk Rose Ausländers
- W.S. Gilbert - a century of scholarship and commentary
- Monografia del Departamento del Huila
- Motivation and work attitudes - Republic of Ireland : a national perspective
- Marine sponges - forty-six sponges of Northern New Zealand