Clinical Social Work

Aristotle refers loosely to mother and father as parents, but the real parent is clearly the male, since it is he who contributes the human soul.

implement a salary program in the 1993-94 fiscal year. In the 1960s and 1970s, as riots broke out in a number of urban centers and a wave of violent crime rolled across the United States, politicians on both sides of the aisle not only continued to link race and crime in rhetoric, they took action, enacting harsh, punitive, and retributively oriented policies as a solution to rising crime rates. Neither does our inward certainty that we have free choice, extend to its metaphysical relations.

 short it was a heady moment when intellectual, institutional, and personal transformation seemed crucial, possible, difficult, and exciting.
