The author points out the importance of documents from the Conference of Bishops and Judicial Commission of the Local Council of 1917—1918 for studying church conflicts on a diocesan scale. Buy now More Info Code: 016165 Lebedev, A.

Sacred Land

The study of the genesis of these ideas in the province during the period from the First Russian revolution to the February revolution makes it possible to understand the connection between religious and political factors in this dramatic period. It is doubtful that we can expect the emergence of an All-Russia Council with the catholic universal stance suitable for a sequel to the 1917-18 Council.
