In 1991, after observing that many Filipino manufacturers lacked the proper representation to serve the second largest Asian population in North America, KGC accepted requests by several well-known Filipino food manufacturers to represent them as North American Marketing Coordinator. In 1996, our distribution company, King Wai Trading, began distributing outside of California to Colorado and Utah. In 1993 our vision for growth was once again turned into reality - this time almost tripling our existing storage capacity via the acquisition of a 3.
