Wild Rose: Rose O'Neale Greenhow, Civil War Spy by Blackman, Ann Book The Fast 9781400061181

Greenhow's striking personality--confident, snobbish, and canny--is astutely portrayed amid an active narrative of her life, which ended in an 1864 shipwreck on her return from a European diplomatic mission as Jefferson Davis' emissary. Relive the Civil War through the exploits of this Southern patriot, who dazzled Washington and Europe long before women were supposed to behave so boldly.
