The journals of Søren Kierkegaard : a selection edited and translated / by Alexander Dru

I also thought it would be best for her, for this daily repetition is enervating if she is thinking of reconciliation with me, for which I would of course have to ask her husband's consent. I will hurry along the path I have found and shout to everyone I meet not to look back as Lot's wife did but remember that it is uphill that we are struggling I A 75.

Trembling in fear and ecstasy

I dare do no other, for I am a penitent from whom God can demand everything. Significantly, this entry is preceded by a quote from King Lear, Act 5 Scene 3.

KIERKEGAARD'S JOURNALS, New Blackfriars

Let me now imagine someone saying to himself: It is easy to see that what paid professionals proclaim in the churches is not Christianity, but I myself know what Christianity is. When it was clear to him that he was unsuitable for marriage, Kierkegaard decided to convince Regine Olsen that he was a scoundrel, and thus make it easier for her to part from him. Some of the entries have the epigrammatic nature of works by late Wittgenstein — was there a direct influence? The next will be that I am a hypocrite.

Kierkegaard, D. Anthony Storm's Commentary on

Kierkegaard at this time was working on his dissertation The Concept of Irony, with Continual Reference to Socrates, and for two months after the break up he would continue to work and defend his thesis.

Description: Søren Kierkegaard's journals and papers

O, you wonderful nineteenth century! I took my usual route the next day too. But then suppose as I was not aware at the start that the current preaching in Christendom leaves out something essential in the proclamation of Christianity—'imitation, dying away, being born. They have also included illustrations and engravings when Kierkegaard refers to a visual image; historical maps of Denmark, Copenhagen, and Berlin; calendars of the dates covered by the journals; and a concordance to correlate KJN with Heiberg's organization in Søren Kierkegaard's Papirer.

KIERKEGAARD'S JOURNALS, New Blackfriars

Only rarely, very rarely, is a child raised in it with enormous strictness, and that, wrong as it may be, is much to be preferred even if it destroys his childhood and youth.
