Eloquent Silences: Kyoung Ae Cho, Textiles and Wood Sculpture

Assistant Professor, Department of Visual Art, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Throughout our lives, we are constantly influenced by people and things that surround us. The artist will give a public presentation about her work at the museum on Tuesday, September 19, at 6:00pm. The environment has been metamorphosing its materials, to form new existence, in an ever-changing society.

How to pronounce Kyoung Ae Cho

I've been trying to understand the beauty and logic of nature and natural elements, and to explore them through my work. She received the Award of Excellence from Quilt National 1997 for her work Aged; covered by wisdom, which is included in the Tweed Museum exhibition.
