The frescoes of Giotto and Fra Angelico

Nancy-Carolyn Smith, a professional sculptor and arts educator, had a long-cherished vision of starting an Arts Guild for the nurturing and networking of Catholic artists, motivated by the inspiration and support she had received from the Chicago-based Catholic Arts Guild. The deliberate placement of the narrative with respect to the illumination of the room begs the question again, how involved was Giotto in the architectural aspects of the chapel? Thus far the composition contains the inevitable components in a very standard arrangement.

Art in Tuscany

The scene is set under a renaissance portico with the light arches stretched with wisdom on , which remember the architecture of. Another of the most obvious discrepancies in scale is around the arch to the left, between the size of the figures of the procession coming through the arch, and those of the locals and unmounted horses to the right of the arch.

Art and Grace: St. Fra Angelico ~ The Imaginative Conservative

It was a costumed re-enactment of their arrival at the nativity, with the main parts taken by the leading members, including the Medici and their associates.

Fra Angelico Paintings

Masaccio unfortunante death at a young age opened the door for Fra Angelico to stand out as the artist of choice for most significant commissions from that point onwards. Some craft distilleries may produce this flavor of liqueur and those are worth tasting.
