28 Routed Cabinet Pulls ideas

Style is a reflection of who you are and how you live. Courtesy: Crown Point Cabinetry All of these cabinets were face framed, meaning the front of the box was constructed of stiles and rails joined together, typically using butt or half-lap joints that were then glued and nailed. You can go without toe kicks, but I am pretty careless and rough on things, so I would be accidentally kicking the bottom of the cabinets constantly and scuffing them up.
