Nature of Religion

Therefore the churches, although they are so many and so great, comprise but the one primitive church, founded by the apostles, from which they all spring. He was a prolific writer and one of the greatest theologians of the early Church.

Scripture And Church Fathers

Key terms, defined and highlighted in boldface when they first appear, are included in an extensive glossary and many of these are also listed and defined at the end of each chapter for immediate understanding and review. John of the Cross and St. Now for those who wish to read the Bible with profit, the first thing to make sure of is a good translation.
