Dawn of War (Map Game)

The translations are divided into two sections, translations completed and translations in preparation; within each section, the references are grouped in broad subject categories, substantially those used in Nuclear Science Abstracts. The President surprised his audience by describing an Air Corps of 20,000 planes and an industry capable of producing 24,000 planes a year. Is it possible that we are to see another failure in terms of planning, similar to that which allowed the RAAC ARES to be relegated to a dismounted role as the new AFVs are too complex for them to operate? We sell oil to the EU and USA.
