People Christians, Jews, Muslims Rosenzweig did not take other religions very seriously, and his treatment of Islam is superficial seek the kingdom of God through prayer, action, and hope. In sure confidence that God will defend the right, we hereto subscribe our names.

Getting the Garden Right

Rosenzweig, Franz, The Star of Redemption tr. The presentation, firmly rooted in traditional and modern Jewish sources, retains the distinctiveness of Judaism and the Jewish relationship with God, whilst enabling a theology of religious pluralism and dialogue, and remaining open on the precise nature of the relationship between Judaism and Christianity. The relationship between love and covenant will be obvious to most contemporary readers; the connection between covenant and friendship, however, is frequently neglected in contemporary Christian teaching.
