Godhra train burning

Bhatt, along with Union Minister of State for Defence Harin Pathak, faces charges of having incited a mob that murdered a police constable in the course of communal violence on April 25, 1985. The FIR had alleged that a 1540-strong mob attacked the Sabarmati Express on 27 February, minutes after the delayed train left the Godhra station on the day of the incident.

They collected all the young men. Within a few months Nanavati, before hearing any testimony declared there was no evidence of lapses by either the police or government in their handling of the violence.

Community Contemplations by William Pardy

If any project to tackle these problems comes before the Government, we shall provide assistance to them and contribute to their completion. Ramachandran was of the opinion that Modi could be prosecuted for alleged statements he had made. Other acts of violence against women included , beatings and the killing of women who were pregnant.

Muslims at Crossroads

The US State Department's International Religious Freedom Report quoted the NHRC as concluding that the attacks had been premeditated, that state government officials were complicit, and that there was evidence of police not acting during the assaults on Muslims. The ruling party colluded in the bandh call given by the VHP for the next day, February 28, 2002.
