Nikita Khrushchev

As he had only four years of formal schooling, he applied to the training program attached to the tekhnikum that was designed to bring undereducated students to high-school level, a prerequisite for entry into the tekhnikum. Much better was peaceful coexistence, of the sort that Lenin himself endorsed.

Molotov was sent as Ambassador to ; the others were sent to head industrial facilities and institutes far from Moscow. Ukraine had been the site of extensive purges, with the murdered including professors in Stalino whom Khrushchev greatly respected. While Khrushchev hoped to accomplish this by 1947, lack of resources and armed resistance by partisans slowed the process.

Beria was tried in secret and executed in December 1953 with five of his close associates. Khrushchev's final years in Ukraine were generally peaceful, with industry recovering. Soviet forces overcoming the partisans, and 1947 and 1948 seeing better-than-expected harvests. Its students aren't yearning to work on the collective farms because to do that they'd have to go out in the provinces and live in the sticks.

While Stalin hinted at arresting and executing Khrushchev, he allowed the commissar to return to the front by sending him to. Perhaps no more eloquent testimony to the new state of affairs in Viet-Nam could be cited than the voice of the people themselves as expressed in their free election of last March. The free world owes him a debt of gratitude for his determined stand at that fateful hour.
