Song of Roland: Overall Analysis and Themes

They are, however, untrustworthy and deceitful people. The struggle that dominates the core of the poem, the battle between King Marsile and Roland, is not just a battle between Christianity and paganism—it is a battle for the soul of fealty and everything that medieval France would have held so dearly.

Song of Roland Translation Exercise

I enjoyed reading the Owen translation a few years ago. This, I think, is worth remembering when observing the contrast of values: The pagan antagonists who utter lies are all killed at some point in the poem. His solution is to make the Saracens the reverse image, the evil twins, of the Christians, both opposite and identical.

Song Of Roland (Tagalog Version)

As such, the feudal values of eleventh and twelfth century France are married to Christianity while the negative values of eleventh and twelfth century France are associated with pagan Saracenism. Kailangan na lamang nilang pumili ng mensahero upang ipadala ang mensahe ng pagtanggap ng alok ni Haring Marsile. There can be no mistaking the intent of this heroic song of valor.

The Song of Roland: Translations of the Versions in Assonance and Rhyme of the Chanson de Roland

It is the most well-known chanson de geste song of heroic deeds and is an exhilarating and remarkable synthesis of the Frankish heroic and tribal tradition and Christianity. Dahil sa takot sa sandatahang lakas ni Haring Charlemagne ay nagpadala si Haring Marsile ng isang mensahero papunta kay Haring Charlemagne upang ipatid ang pangakong kayamanan at pagpapalit ng relihiyon patungo sa Kristianismo.
