Principles of equity:

Here is a fair opportunity for the interposition of equity. Hally 1870 , 506 Langham Rink Co. But equity may be carried so far as to be prejudicial to commerce by encouraging law-suits; and for that reason we admit not the actio quanti minoris: the principle of utility rejects it, experience having demonstrated that it is a great interruption to the free course of commerce.

RANALD ALASDAIR MacDONALD of KEPPOCH v. THE LORD ADVOCATE FOR CONFIRMATION OF ARMS

After granting the above feu right, Earl Thomas conveyed the charter 1774 to certain persons in liferent, who were infeft, and thus became invested with the liferent superiority; but, with respect to the fee, which was taken to Earl Thomas and his heirs and assignees whatsoever, the procuratory remained unexecuted until after his death.
