Acclimation Effects on the Supreme Court of Canada: A Cross-Cultural Examination of Judicial Folklore, Social Science Quarterly

First, these individuals often lack the ties to the community that are perceived by courts as prerequisites for bail. But as Part I of this paper served to illustrate, despite occasional claims to the contrary in the cases, the truth is that mistakes, misuses, and even abuses of the arrest power are an unfortunate and somewhat inevitable reality in Canada.

2003 SCC 35 (CanLII)

A need for surprise requires that warrants to search or arrest be obtained on an ex parte basis.
