Along with her work as a curator, Drutt became a gallerist, and a close working relationship and friendship with both artists ensued. Paper back in full colour illustrating site specific large scale installations.

Who is Wendy Ramshaw?

Some pieces are included in museum and public collections; others are worn privately on an every day basis. I quickly received this pretty little necklace. Please contact The Gallery in advance if you have an questions, wish to view an artwork not on display, or wish to collect a purchase.

Wendy Ramshaw, inventive doyenne of British jewellery design who made paper earring kits for Mary Quant and later mixed gold, diamonds, feathers and pebbles

It was during this period that Ramshaw began incorporating the feathers which were to feature strongly in her jewellery of the eighties.
