The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Quotes by Edward Gibbon

He became the ancestor of Remus and Romulus, who founded Rome.

Faits des Romains

Li fait des Romains dans les littératures française et italienne du XIIIe au XVIe siècle.

Faits des Romains

No sound of joy or sorrow was heard from either bank; But friends and foes in dumb surprise, with parted lips and straining eyes, Stood gazing where he sank; And when above the surges they saw his crest appear, All Rome sent forth a rapturous cry, and even the ranks of Tuscany Could scarce forbear to cheer. Et ce qui est beaucoup plus intéressant Du côté de Sirius ou d'Algol, Où tout me paraîtra tellement étonnant.

Arthur Rimbaud

It stands in the Comitium, plain for all folk to see; Horatius in his harness, halting upon one knee: And underneath is written, in letters all of gold, How valiantly he kept the bridge in the brave days of old. With a group of fellow students he formed a literary school that came to be called La Pléiade, in emulation of the seven ancient Greek poets of Alexandria: its aim was to produce French poetry that would stand comparison with the verse of classical antiquity. In the shadow of corridors with damp paper, He stuck out his tongue in passing, two fists In his groin, seeing specks under his shut lids.

Couture, Romans of the Decadence (video)

. . The writings of some of these men had a major impact on the use of the Latin language and Roman literature.
