

The first version is known as the unaudited annual accounts and must be submitted to the Auditor by 30 June. If so, however, the presence of wheat raises an interesting possibility, for it might suggest not that the inhabitants were growing food for the Romans, but that they were actually adopting Roman tastes. SWACS The Save Wemyss Ancient Caves Society offers a range of items to entice the heritage-minded buyer, with an emphasis, as you might expect, on Pictish themes.

Related Books

- Remarks on a scurrilous libel, intituled, A persuasive to impartiality and candor, in judging of the
- Agribusiness and innovation systems in Africa
- Local business partnerships - a good practice guide.
- Canon Atkinson and his country
- Parish of Colinton - from an early period to the present day