St. Francis of Sales, Bishop and Confessor

If your weakness troubles you, cast yourselves on God, and trust in him. That king offered to name him to the dignity of cardinal at the next promotion; but the saint made answer, that though he did not despise the offered dignity, he was persuaded that great titles would not sit well upon him, and might raise fresh obstacles to his salvation. He wrote innumerable letters mainly letters of direction and found time to publish the numerous works mentioned below.
