Blessed are the young who, starved of glory, shall be satisfied! D'Annunzio inspired both the general population and the Italian soldiers with his writings Politics Although not fitting into the conventional Left or Right, which can also be said of the emerging Italian nationalist movement, D'Annunzio entered Parliament in 1899 as a non-doctrinaire conservative with revolutionary ideas.

Le Martyre de saint Sébastien

If you think this needs clarifying in the article, please edit as appropriate. The psychological inspiration of his novels has come to him from many sources—French, Russian, Scandinavian, German—and in much of his earlier work there is little fundamental originality.

Gardone Riviera

Some of the material was orchestrated by. My main interest, as yours of course, is that the article is accurate and well sourced. It would make a nice counterpoint to the formidable d'Annunzio at the top of the English Wikipedia article.

Gabriele d'Annunzio's House (Former) in Villefranche

Both style and contents began to startle his critics; some who had greeted him as an enfant prodige rejected him as a perverter of public morals, whilst others hailed him as one bringing a breath of fresh air and an impulse of new vitality into the somewhat prim, lifeless work hitherto produced. They stood for a new age based on speed, dynamism, and martial valour.
