She is very obviously adept at observing human relationships and small banal moments and turns them into beautiful and intriguing stories.

The Collected Stories of Colette Characters

Regardless, I felt markedly underwhelmed by this collection. Perhaps because the collection which I read is comprised of earlier stories, they are not as polished as her later work. Backstage at the music hall.

The Collected Stories Of Colette by Colette

Her longer, later works are a little too detail heavy and involved, but the middle ones are excellent! Pick up your pen, open your laptop and fire up your imagination. In these stories, she often has her hair cut and is buying new clothes, trying to be very fashionable and find the most flattering thing.
