Equestrian Statuette of Charlemagne

So today we are going to look at 10 royal portraits. Pure gold is exceptionally used to the illumination of the folio 3 in the Godescalc Evangelistary Table. It seems to disappear from recipes of colour treatises from the 14th century for the benefit of the easier to find colouring agents: madder, kermès, brésil.

Carolingian and Ottonian Art

They wore a veil, as was rigorously enforced by the Church; for according to an Article of the Council of Salisbury, no priest might hear the confession of an unveiled woman.

Carolingian art, an introduction

In the East, from the fourth century, the Gospels are placed on an episcopal throne during ceremonies.
