College basketball

This move was done largely out of fear of the virus spreading to players and watchers, with prior attempts to limit the spread without canceling by first choosing to limit attendees, and then canceling the tournament in its entirety. Generally, small colleges join Division II, while colleges of all sizes that choose not to offer athletic scholarships join Division III. Now players are required to wear business casual attire whenever they are engaged in team or league business.

College basketball

Riley was never the featured player on any team, but his hard work and determination was the foundation on which many Trenton teams built their success. Packer spends a few pages on this telecast which he says was a joint production between TVS and Chesley and talks about meeting Enberg for the first time earlier that day. Expansion also improved the distribution of playing locations, which number roughly one-third the number of teams in the field.
