A Brief History of the Moravian Church

More than any other sin, God hates pride. The Justice and Peace Episcopal Commissions 57. What about the many new immigrant groups now flooding to America? The new developments which have taken place during these past eleven years offer new opportunities for the Church's mission in Africa.

Our Mission

Nor does it imply that every person is entitled to an equal or identical amount of goods. In my position as publisher for the last two decades and as an observer of the current Christian scene, these are the 20 most crucial issues I believe are facing the church.

The Church in Africa in Service to Reconciliation, Justice and Peace

It is the goal—not the journey—that is important. Schools were among the more important institutions - very often the most important - in missionary pastoral activity.

Debate: Is Social Justice Essential to Church's Mission?

In essence, this form of capitalism failed to respect the subjective dignity of the worker. It was obviously not a spiritually healthy situation, and I wanted to help churches be healthy by providing a forum for pastors and other leaders to learn about aspects of ministry, and to confront the problems facing charismatic churches. We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker.

A Brief History of the Moravian Church

He does not ask us simply to forget the offense but to be reconciled with those who do us violence.

Mission of the Church

In such situations, citizens are unable to take part in public life and popular opinion cannot make a difference. For the soldiers who are misguided in thinking that their bullets will bring about peace, for those who feel called to conscientiously object to military orders, Lord, hear our prayer.
