History is the movement along time in which different modes of production succeed each other by means of the dynamics of class struggle. Lear — But goes thy heart with this? It seems such a common word, that one could think this cannot be the solution for such a complicated epistemic conflict as the one we have been dealing with. And, for this reason, I decided to present such data to the reader only in Chapter 5, after the analysis of some scenes — thus, the reader arrives to such facts exactly at the same time that I arrived to them.
