Ouspensky studied the Gurdjieff system directly under Gurdjieff's own supervision for a period of ten years, from 1915 to 1924. There is an interesting chapter in which he vividly describes his impressions of such marvels as the Sphinx, the Pyramids and the Taj Mahal encountered during his extensive travels in search for the miraculous.

The lettering is small to average; around 11 point font-size in Microsoft Word, not including the chapter headings, table of contents, and so on. He shares much about themes like the esoteric teachings hidden within the New Testament, the Fourth dimension, sacred geometry, dreams, yoga, hypnosis, and some of Ouspensky's own travels in search of the miraculous. May have some damage to the cover but integrity still intact.

I'm not sure at what age I should give it to them but in the meantime, if I kick the can, they are in addressed envelopes for each. While in Russia, Ouspensky experimented with the technique with a certain degree of success, and in his lectures in London and America he emphasized the importance of its practice.
