He had sheep there and because a storm came up, he had to spend the night in a shelter used for the sheep, and then came back with the tune to the main Island. The subject matter varies greatly from nationalism, working women, death, emigration, war and the super-natural and all the fourteen songs are from printed sources and come with brief but informative notes. Initially funded by the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, Dance Unit consisted of four dancers, director Ann Whitley, and technical staff.
