Binders containing details of an infrastructure agreement reached by bipartisan negotiators were visible on Wednesday outside a meeting on Capitol Hill.

Joe Biden (still) doesn't want to get rid of the filibuster

When a staff member designated to work on the House floor handed a mask to Representative Lauren Boebert, Republican of Colorado, she tossed it back at the person, according to another aide who witnessed the exchange and requested anonymity to describe it. However, a precedent change could be in play, ala a hypothetical Nuclear Option III. Senate Republicans struggled with 60 votes.

39 senators who now support changing or eliminating the filibuster previously opposed doing so

Two days earlier that all 300,000 municipal employees must be vaccinated or submit to weekly testing.
