Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint Process

If an agency believes that some, but not all, of the claims in a complaint should be dismissed for the above reasons, it must notify the complainant in writing of the rationale for this determination, identify the allegations which will not be investigated, and place a copy of this notice in the investigative file. Both you and the agency will be required to do what you promised to do in the agreement. Amendments should be submitted to the CRC Director in writing.

Filing a Formal Complaint

You may initiate an EEO complaint by contacting an EEO Counselor for your agency. The agency must show by clear and convincing evidence that any class member is not entitled to relief. See the information on our Web site under Discrimination Complaint Filing or call the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, Information Research Service, on 202 401-0005 or 800 795-3272 toll free or send an email to the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights at.
