I was hoping to get some insight on national differences in sniper tactics and equipment. Hmm... GETTING THE TOOLS TO DO THE JOB So, facing this, I want to get a number of details in MANNA right and leave any construction of the imagination to things which are not out of the realm of possibility, but are also not crucial to driving the history in the plot of the book.

Sniper Anthology: Snipers of the Second World War : Martin Pegler : 9781848326255

Only three new poets all of whom died on active service showed promise: , Sidney Keyes, and , the latter the most gifted and distinctive, whose eerily detached accounts of the battlefield revealed a poet of potential greatness. Combined with similar German books and memoirs from British, Canadian, American and other perspectives, these stories help give a well-rounded account of life during the war.
