This cache is ideal for children but there is a busy road near to Stage 2 so as always keep a close eye on them. You can read about how that policy is implemented by viewing the Methodist Church Privacy Notice. My name may be published alongside the comment on the website, but my e-mail address will not be published.

Hanham Mount may look like a small hill overlooking the South-East of Bristol but it is an area steep in history since Baptists first preached here in the mid 17 th Century with the two most famous preachers of the site being George Whitfield and John Wesley in the 18 th Century. If you are facing out towards your congregation then about 8 metres behind you is a bible quotation, taken from Isaiah HI :J, engraved into the floor. I did a routine check on it and the cache has gone.

They are supported by Mrs Evans, Miss McNama, Mrs Morse, Mrs Nutland, Miss Shields and Miss Robbins. Stage 1: The Early Bristol Baptists The growth of the Baptist and non-conformist movement was seen as a direct threat to the sovereignty of the Church of England during the mid-17 th century which resulted in severe persecution.
