Cowboys Full: The Story of Poker

There's a very good chapter which tries to work out how much luck is involved in the game. It's a very good book about the history of poker.

Cowboys Full

McManus starts at the very beginning--when paper-making came from the East to the West.

The writing is good and the author does a superb job of explaining even the most technical of game details without reducing the reading to a slog. Obama, still a fledgling senator, correctly read the situation and voted against the invasion of Iraq. And about some other things that somehow managed to co-opt into being about poker.
