Battle Beads Blog: All Saints' Day

Often, the names of those who have died in the past year are affixed to a memorial plaque. Catholics celebrate All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day in the fundamental belief that there is a prayerful spiritual communion between those in the state of grace who have died and are either being purified in purgatory or are in heaven the 'church penitent' and the 'church triumphant', respectively, and the 'church militant' who are the living. Help us to hold this privilege and responsibility with the care and awareness it merits, realizing that our vote matters and that it is an act of faith.
