Sources of Chinese Tradition

Her modern feminism struggled to overcome an ancient patriarchy. West Lafayette: Purdue University Press, 2014, 77-91. Stanford: Stanford University Press, 2005, 89-112.

Modern Chinese nationalism and the awakening of self

Thirdly, he defeated the Taipings once regarded as the precursors of the Chinese communist revolution, who were Christians a Western religion, and had attacked Confucianism. Such a formal and philosophical problem is central to literature, as well as corresponds to the socio-historical paradox of the 1950s China.

Zhang Binglin

His experience is captured in some 200 quatrains in the two editions of his Riben zashi shi Poems on miscellaneous subjects from Japan, 1879 and 1890, whose contents overlap to include different poems and different versions of same poems. Vancouver: University of British Columbia, 2004.
