African theology

God is the only person with authority to judge and help us discern the truth. What is African Christianity theology? The alleged witch-hunt is viewed in certain quarters as the battles for the souls of South African citizens conducted between the South African Council of Churches SACC on the one hand, and the new movement of charismatic churches plus nondescript cults on the other. And David Kaulemu, a Zimbabwean lay theologian, proffered a methodology for promoting social justice founded on mutuality and collaboration between the church and civil society in Africa.

African theology and gerontology

They have found resonance in sections of the African faith communities who hold aspirations to acquire wealth — and exhibit it in a vulgar sense of conspicuous consumption.

What is black liberation theology?

The PATHS Constitution and Bylaws and the appointment of PATHS administration were ratified at the AAGA Executive Meeting in Lilongwe, Malawi, February 2005. Reconstruction theologians however approach pertinent issues, such as food crisis, child abuse, the AIDS pandemic and poverty in a unique and inspiring way. It came down to roles, expectations that women are in charge of food and men are served.
