Evidence-based nurse-driven interventions for the care of newborns with neonatal abstinence syndrome. Key informants also commonly described the conditions in unlicensed care homes as abusive, financially exploitative, and neglectful of residents' basic needs, and depicted situations that involved false imprisonment of the residents and repeatedly moving the residents from one facility to another, both within and across states, to evade law enforcement. Key informants noted that it is important to know the history of Pennsylvania's personal care home regulation changes in order to understand why and how the state has addressed illegally unlicensed personal care homes.

2020

Two key informants thought that the ongoing statewide mental health reform, which began in 2002, has exacerbated issues related to the general lack of infrastructure and knowledge about needs of persons with mental illness. Because of limited ability to do onsite inspections, the department will not be able to meet current Code and regulatory requirements.

Coronavirus

Many of these have developed task forces, committees, projects, and toolkits to conduct data collection activities for statewide measurement and evaluation efforts. Any public or accredited private school may operate emergency child care for preschool or school aged children of essential personnel during a declared state or local emergency due to COVID-19.
