He would come to discover his true happiness in God. His cart had broken down in front of the orphanage. Many more followed the first, until historians estimate Muller provided for over 10,000 orphans in his lifetime—all by simple faith in the ability of the God of heaven to bring in the necessary funds.

How George Muller Provided for His Orphans?

They did not get any orphans. An amazing life lived in God. His preaching was God centered and Christ exalting.

George Mueller

Join our team as we strengthen the Church to meet the needs of the vulnerable. In the Britain of the early 19th century, the combination of large families, extreme poverty and a high level of adult mortality had resulted in many orphans, most of whom ended up on the street.

Such rents were seen by Mueller as discriminatory toward the poor.

The uniqueness of George Müller

We have already looked at the lives of and. He simply sat them down at the table and confidently said grace.

George Müller and his orphans (1992 edition)

George wanted to get to his mission as quickly as possible; however, he became very sick. He built orphanages the way he did to help Christians trust God. George smiled as the milkman brought in ten large cans of milk.
