Our children deserve to be able to go to a library in their own school, they need to be up and physically active, and they definitely deserve to have a nurse on call at ALL times of the school day so that uneducated teachers are not guessing and making judgment calls on whether or not OUR children need medical care, meds, or whatever the case may be. According to Shapiro : At first the home visits were aimed solely at explaining the morning exercises and programs of the child-the meaning and usefulness of the complicated gifts, occupations, songs, and games. Therefore, many believed that poverty could be checked by positively transforming the crowded urban environment e.
