Historian Jeremy Yellen on the Greater East Asia Co

Furthermore, as circumstances permit, we will bring about the reorganization of Thailand's economic system as a member of the Greater East Asia economic bloc. We will set up a joint Thai-Japanese economic committee and devise other methods to facilitate the guidance and control of the Thai economy. Initially, then, the Sphere was little more than a process, wherein Japanese leaders were groping in the dark for a new way forward.

THE GREATER EAST ASIA CO

Economic policy towards Thailand will be arranged separately based upon the decisions set forth in this policy statement. Since the war the ideals of the Co-Prosperity Sphere have been viewed, especially by non-Japanese, as largely propaganda which had been designed to entice the local peoples of the western colonial areas and smooth Japan's advance into these colonies. When the Japanese Foreign Minister Matsuoka Yōsuke announced the idea in 1940, he attempted to pursue the sphere-of-influence diplomacy vis-à-vis the Anglo-American powers chapter 2.

Historian Jeremy Yellen on the Greater East Asia Co

Were there any detailed visions or plans behind it? But by mid-1943, Japan was so weakened that this new vision was next to impossible to implement. Through the pioneering of new ways for their use and by exporting to the Axis, we will do our utmost to prevent their decline in production. JAY: I discuss a wide variety of actors, both in Japan and across Southeast Asia.

The Greater East Asia Co

The government took the lead, laying down the priorities that each colony was to fulfil strategically and economically in its relationship with the home country.

The Greater East Asia Co

The closer Japan came to defeat in war, the more leaders paired their Pan-Asian mission with liberal internationalist norms. Both established functioning diplomatic establishments, creating new foreign ministries as well as embassies in Tokyo.

Japan

It was a place where the Americans could attack the Japanese shipping and the Japanese fleet as they shuttled back and forth between Indonesia which had the oil, rubber and tin, and the homeland island. An able cadre of officials, experts and entrepreneurs was developed in the public and private sectors who spearheaded the modernization.
