The Epopee of St. Joan of Arc

All the witnesses in the process of rehabilitation spoke of her as a singularly pious child, grave beyond her years, who often knelt in the church absorbed in prayer, and loved the poor tenderly.

Joan of Arc

Joan of Arc, one of the most inspiring and enigmatic figures in the history of the Church.

The Epopee of St. Joan of Arc

Her ability to produce wonders one after the other makes one hard pressed not to believe in her saintliness.

St. Joan of Arc, the life

Her followers were driven back and retired desperately fighting. Bedford's plan was to have Joan condemned by an ecclesiastical court and thus turn the saint into a sorceress.

The Epopee of St. Joan of Arc

Just as in the Old Testament we have the Chosen People, in the New Law we have the example of France, whose great role in Christendom the Popes have never tired of emphasizing. Aquitaine was also under the English.
