Saeed Ahmad Palanpuri

The beauty of this tafsīr is that it focuses on conveying the meaning of the text and the actual message of the Quran without branching off into related discussions. Mufti Sa'īd gave a copy of his booklet on Ta'ziyat gatherings to Mufti Muhammad Taqi Ṣāhib. It was here that he acquired his primary Maktab education.

In 1382 1963, Mufti Ṣāhib enrolled on the Ifā' programme under the tutelage of Mufti Sayyid Mahdī Ḥasan Ṣāhib. The book is published in five large volumes and is a must for all scholars especially in contemporary times.

Khutbāt

Each letter of the durūd should be clear. It is worth noting that Mufti Ṣāhib would stress the importance of Sunnah and highlight that some practices in some circles are contrary to the Shariah.

Khutbāt

However, the highlight of the day was the afternoon lunch at the residence of my respected father Mufti Shabbir Ahmad where some of the great luminaries of the sub-continent and the UK came together in one room.

Ulum al

However, this illustrates his Taqwā, Zuhd abstinence and caution in such matters. Another example is his position on the 80 Durūd after 'Aṣr Ṣalāh narration.

Saeed Ahmad Palanpuri

This is undoubtedly a great loss for Darul Uloom Deoband where Mufti Ṣāhib taught for 48 years, and for the entire Ummah. As mentioned above, differences of opinion exist on many of these issues, so consult your local Muftis in the first instance. The problem is that many people conduct detailed discussions, often unrelated, at the beginning of the year which wastes time.
