Pope Francis

The state contribution to , which had been £20,000 in 1833, and £914,721 in 1870, had reached £16,000,000 in 1901. It was also the product of a certain jealousy of the successes of the Americanist leaders in mainstream society in this country. And yet a comparison of contemporary Catholic life with the main Americanist tenets would indicate unmistakably that it has now won as total a victory as it humanly can win.
