Thomas Merton/Monk, Volume 52: A Monastic Tribute

Patrick Hart, OCSO, a native of Green Bay, Wisconsin, entered the Abbey of Gethsemani in 1951 and served as secretary to Thomas Merton during the last year of his life. At last, Patrick Hart, Thomas Merton's private secretary, has filled a large vacuum in the literature about Merton.

My favourite is A Nun's Tribute by Anne Saword because she reviews the personal events in Merton's life looking at a soul's journey on this earth and notes Merton's premonition for the end. Although not easy reading, these are serious portraits of Merton. The facets of his persona are reviewed under these subjects: the man, the monk, the hermit, man of prayer, evolving monk, contemplative monk, Zen master and the ecumenical monk.

The facets of his persona are reviewed under these subjects: the man, the monk, the hermit, man of prayer, evolving monk, contemplative monk, Zen master and the ecumenical monk. He has edited many books by and about Thomas Merton during the thirty-eight years since the latter's death on December 10, 1968. Now, five years after his death, his friends, the men and women who knew him best, speak out about Merton as monk.
